LEYENDA CABERNET SAUVIGNON
VINTAGE	MEDIA/DATE	SCORE	COMMENTS
2016	James Suckling USA March 2018	92 points	A red with so much cassis and stone character. Hints of basil. Full body, layered and spicy. Fresh herb. Delicious finish. Serious cabernet.
2015	Descorchados 2018 Chile October 2017	93 points
2015	James Suckling USA May 2017	93 points	A fine and balanced red with black currant, berry and hints of minerals. Full body, tight and polished. Very pretty balance. Fine tannins. This is really well-done for the name. Drink or hold.
2014	The Wine Advocate USA May 2017	91 points	There is a special label in the popular Casillero del Diablo range, of which I tasted two consecutive years starting with the 2014 Casillero del Diablo Leyenda Cabernet Sauvignon, which is sourced from the prestigious Pirque appellation in Maipo. It had a traditional vinification, but it then aged in 5,000-liter oak botti from Piemonte for some 17 months. This comes from a slightly cooler year, and the herbal character is more noticeable, a more austere and serious Cabernet, very representative of the zone. It has good shoulders, focused flavors and fine-grained, classical varietal tannins. This is very tasty and long.

2016	James Suckling USA May 2017	91 points	A layered and rich red with lots of berry and oyster shell character. Full body, juicy fruit. Intense finish. Always a solid cab for the money. Drink or hold.
2015	Wine Spectator USA January 2017	90 points	This ripe and muscular red offers dense dark currant, dried blackberry and green olive flavors that lengthen out nicely, with plenty of fresh acidity. Savory green herbal and bittersweet chocolate notes show on the finish.
